

Specifications Elites 2024

Welcome

Dear Elites,

You have registered for the Mont Blanc Marathon as an Elite runner and this entails certain obligations. We invite you to take note of the information opposite concerning your participation.

The Chamonix Mont-Blanc Sports Club, an association under the law of 1901, is organising the Mont-Blanc Marathon races from 27 to 30 June 2024.

Informations

Elite runners may be invited to various events (official presentation, press conference, etc.). If you receive such an invitation from the organisers, you MUST attend.

Team Managers must be accredited before 24 June and collect their accreditation from the Chamonix Sports Club. Accreditation gives them access to the 'Team Zone' at the refreshment posts and at the finish (closed to the public). Accreditation link Accreditations Team Manager

Accreditation does not give you free access to the ski lifts. You will need a lift pass if you wish to use them.

Team managers are authorised to refuel their riders 20 metres before or 20 metres after the refreshment points, depending on the refreshment point. Access to the refreshment tent is forbidden for the Team Managers.

Outside these zones, refuelling is forbidden and may result in time penalties for the riders.

Compulsory equipment is required on the Mont Blanc Marathon races to ensure runners' safety. There will be frequent checks to ensure that runners have this equipment.

As an elite runner, you are surrounded by a great deal of media attention, so you must be exemplary in this respect.

Compulsory Equipment

Compulsory equipment is required for the Mont Blanc Marathon races to ensure runners' safety.

Checks will be carried out during the races and at the finish.

Withdrawal of race bibs

Place du Mont-Blanc, Chamonix

Race bibs will only be issued to runners in person and on presentation of an ID card with photo. Each runner must bring a race bag containing all the compulsory equipment for the race in which he or she is taking part so that a timing chip can be fitted.

The race number will not be given to a runner who does not present the compulsory equipment for the race in which he or she is registered.

Race bibs can only be collected by appointment. Appointment slots must be booked before 16 June in your runners' space.

Image rights

The Club des Sports de Chamonix is the organiser of a sporting event called the 'Marathon du Mont-Blanc' which will take place from 27 to 30 June 2024.

In application of the provisions of article L 333-1 of the French Sports Code, the Club des Sports de Chamonix is the exclusive owner of the right to exploit this event.

In this context, the Club des Sports de Chamonix is the sole owner of the image rights of each of the competitors taking part in the event, who have expressly waived this right at the time of registration.

Any communication about the event or use of images of the event must respect the name of the event, registered trademarks and with the official agreement of the organisers.

Consequently, only the organisers have the right to use runners' images and may transfer this right.

Unless a licence is obtained from the Club des Sports de Chamonix, the capture and use of images is strictly forbidden.

This means that the use of any images of runners in a race is subject to a licence issued by the Club des Sports de Chamonix. If you wish to purchase this licence please contact the Club des Sports de Chamonix by email at club@chamonixsport.com

Medical certificate

In France, the regulations introduced by the FFA (Fédération Française d'Athlétisme) require all runners taking part in competitions to produce a medical certificate stating that they are not contraindicated in running or athletics in competition and that it is less than one year old on the day of the race, or a 2023-2024 FFA licence.

To finalise your registration for one of the Mont Blanc Marathon races, you will need to submit your document by logging on to your online runners' area.

This document must be uploaded to your DOKEOP profile as soon as possible and no later than 21 June 2024!

You can download the model shown opposite via the following link : modele\_CERTIFICAT\_MEDICAL.pdf

No medical certificates will be accepted when you collect your race bib!

Elites SAS

An Elite SAS will be set up on the Mont Blanc Marathon races.

Access to this SAS will be determined according to the participants' UTMB index.

Your SAS number and race bib number are already available in your runner's space.

Please make sure you have your race number withdrawal card in order to collect your race number.

The organisation will only be setting up Elite SASs for the following races:

- 90 KM du Mont-Blanc
- 42 KM du Mont-Blanc
- 23 KM of Mont-Blanc

Please note! Start of the elite women's 42km at 6.45am!

Finish

The organisers do not provide bottled water at the finish line.

However, a water tank will be available at the finish line to quench your thirst at the end of your race.

If you want a bottle of water, your team manager will have to provide it.

Disqualification Penalty

Each runner taking part in the Mont Blanc Marathon races undertakes to respect the rules to ensure a fair race. It is vital that you respect these commitments, otherwise you may be penalised.

As an Elite runner, you will be surrounded by a great deal of media attention, so you must be exemplary in this respect.

The race marshals present on the course and the officials in charge of the various checkpoints and refreshment posts are empowered to ensure that the rules are respected and to apply an immediate (*) penalty.
